The Protected by Allah

On a rainy morning, the little Tima went out to the nearby
school, wearing her coat.

1

On the way, she found a nice little cat shivering from the cold.

2

She looked towards it with pity
and wished she could save it.

3

She went many steps to school
before she suddenly stopped
and looked back.

4

She decided to help that wretched cat who suffers
alone in the rain.

5

But as soon as she approached it,
she saw a young man holding it
gently between his hands.

The young man left, while Tima's eyes are still attached to the cat.

7

She whispered sadly, "Hesitation kept me from doing good. Let this be a lesson to me."

8

She walked a few steps to school
before suddenly stopping and turning around

9

It was only minutes before she heard a noise mixed with a child's panicked scream..

10

It was the squeak of a wooden board that nearly fell on the poor little child.

11

So Tima set off as a spark to hold the wooden board with both hands.

12

She managed to delay the board's fall just long enough for the lucky child to escape.

13

Tima smiled, thanking Allah
from the bottom of her heart.
"I understand.." she said

"The cat was a lesson for me so that I would not hesitate and save the child at the right time!!"
